

Edison Innovative Power Gains Membership to The Tech Garden

Company joins forces with CenterState CEO-backed incubator to accelerate growth

SYRACUSE, NY, Sept. 4, 2018 — Edison Innovative Power LLC (EIP) today announced that it has become the newest member of The Tech Garden.

The Tech Garden is a program of CenterState CEO that helps technology-leveraging start-ups and supports the innovation ecosystem throughout the Central New York region with a combination of programs, resources, and events, offering business planning assistance, mentoring, specialized advice, targeted referrals, networking opportunities and inspiring space from which to grow their businesses.

CenterState CEO is an independent economic development strategist, business leadership organization and chamber of commerce dedicated to the success of its members and the prosperity of the region with a vision for a vibrant and globally connected region where business thrives and people prosper.

“The resources available to technology companies are exceptional here in Central New York, and we’re thrilled and proud to announce our membership with The Tech Garden,” said James Morrison, CEO & Founder of Edison Innovative Power. “Their team has a proven track record with technology startups and we look forward to having them join us on this journey to bring our high-tech manufacturing business to the region.”
